

Bulldog Bytes

Issue no. 3, 2009:
23/5/09

LAST WEEK:

Our A Grade played at Lobethal last week and won by 67 points. Klunny, Tremaine Kerber, Sheba and Villa were our best players. Dingo's Junior Colts played a thriller to win by 1 point and Tommy's Under 13s had a great win as well.

FUNDRAISERS:

Our 'Op Shop Bop' was a great success with lots of fantastic outfits. There were prizes for the cheapest and best dressed in each category. Here's some of the winners:

Worst dressed 'females'
Dicko, Klunny and Villa

Best females: Shelley Jules Tilly

Worst male Tremaine

Best male: Alan

Most exotic; Shane

Tight pants: Kaitlyn, Scott and Peter

Bad taste: Wingers and Jason

www.onkapingavalleyfootballclub.com.au

PLAYER PROFILE:

Our player profile for this week is Matt Francis.

My name is: Matt Francis My nickname is: Fry
Age: 21 Occupation: Student
My player number at Onkas: 5
As a kid I was: the coolest cat
I always wanted to be: an AFL player
Major influence on my career was: Paul Tanner
The best player I have ever seen was: Andrew McLeod
My greatest sporting moment was: being a member of the team who were Year 7 Volleyball Champions
The best advice my mum gave me was: To be good to your mother
My most treasured possession is: My ipod
The scariest moment in my life was: Crashing my car
The person I would hate to be stuck in a lift with is: Damon Potter
because: he is Damon Potter
My friends think that I am: the funniest person they have met

MEALS AT THE CLUB:

Don't forget meals are available at the club every Saturday night. Our new system is working well with lots of variety and very quick service.

NEXT WEEK'S GAMES:

Next week all our teams are playing at Uraidla. Hope to see you there.

VICE-PRESIDENTS' CLUB:

We now have quite a few members. Still not too late to join. See Mick Hughes, 'Father' Grivell or any committee member for details.

Bulldog Bytes is printed through the generosity of Raine and Horne in Oakbank